VA Services for Alaskan Veterans Living with Dementia

Are you caring for an Alaskan Veteran who is living with dementia? Do you have questions about how to get support services from the VA or about the services that the person is already receiving?

Friday, October 13, 10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Come share your questions and concerns with Guest Speaker Susan Guillory, General Caregiver Support Program Coordinator for the VA. This is an opportunity for anyone in Alaska who is caring for a veteran who has dementia of any kind. Come ask questions or share concerns about how to get services or how to maintain services from the VA. Susan will use this discussion to pull together a panel of subject matter experts from the VA to provide additional information on your concerns and questions.

Friday, October 27, 10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Guest speaker Susan Guillory, General Caregiver Support Program Coordinator for the VA, will host a panel of representatives from different departments at the VA. They will be prepared to answer questions or concerns about how to obtain and improve services for veterans with dementia of any kind. They will focus on concerns brought forth plus any questions that Susan was unable to answer during the meeting on Oct. 13. It's not necessary to have attended the previous meeting to attend this one.

Can't attend either session but have questions or concerns you would like to have addressed? Please send them to Gay Wellman at gwellman@alzalaska.org. We will try to connect you with answers.
